Jonah and the big fish

Jesus turns water into wine

The Bible is made up of two parts – The Old Testament and The New Testament. The Bible is a collection of writing. The Old Testament is mainly about God and how God wants people to live. The New Testament is about Jesus and his followers who told people about how God wants them to live. Christians all over the world read the Bible. The first part of the bible is important to Jewish people as well as Christians.
